Dear David,

My copy of the Amherst Student is arriving regularly, and I enjoy reading it. Of course, I'll be looking with a critical eye especially at the opinion items since you're one of the editors of that section of the paper.

I am pleased to forward copies of the photographs taken when you visited me in my office. I've written a personal inscription on one for you. I'm enclosing the negatives, too, in case you want to make additional prints.

Best wishes for a successful year. I'll be checking on your "opinion" skills when the Student reports the Amherst-Williams score!

Yours,

STANSFIELD TURNER

Dear Admiral Turner:

Life at Amherst is resuming back to normal. I have made sure to add you to the subscription list of the AMHERST STUDENT. Your first issue should be there any day now.

I was wondering if you could see to it that I received one of the pictures that was taken when we met in your office last month. If possible, I would appreciate it greatly if you could sign it as well.

If there is anything I can do assist you in any way please let me know. Until then, I'll try to send any Amherst memorabilia that might be of your interest.

Thank you very much.

Sincerely yours,

David Applefield

P.S. We should beat Williams this year!
